What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device when you visit a website. They are widely used to make websites work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the site owners. Cookies can be "session" cookies (which are deleted when you close your browser) or "persistent" cookies (which remain on your device until they expire or are deleted).

How we use cookies

We use cookies for various purposes, including:

1. Essential Cookies: These cookies are necessary for the website to function properly. They enable you to navigate our site and use its features.
2. Performance and Analytics Cookies: These cookies collect information about how you use our website, such as which pages you visit most often. This information helps us improve our site and your browsing experience.
3. Functionality Cookies: These cookies allow our website to remember choices you make (such as your username, language, or region) and provide enhanced, more personalized features.
4. Advertising and Targeting Cookies: These cookies are used to deliver advertisements that are more relevant to you and your interests. They also help measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns.
